

ByLaw Committee Report
April 30, 2011

The Bylaw Committee was asked at the 2010 Fall Membership Meeting to reinforce the rules in regards to the location of LOBPOA meetings. The red coloring is the addition that the Bylaw Committee is recommending. If there are any questions, please contact the Bylaw committee through the LOBPOA website or through the Clubhouse phone number (262-249-1200). The membership vote on this matter will be May 15, 2011, at the Lake Como Beach Clubhouse.

MEETINGS

5.01 Membership Meetings. Meetings of the regular members of the Corporation shall be held twice per year and participation will be open to all members in good standing. All Membership meetings will be held at the community club house at Lake Como Beach, Town of Geneva, Walworth County, Wisconsin. Notice for all publicly held meetings of the Corporation shall be provided through the normal communications channels of the Corporation as defined in Article 12.02. If the day fixed for the Annual Membership or Fall Membership Meeting shall be a legal holiday, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding Sunday. No hall rentals or activities will supersede a membership meeting or regularly scheduled Board meeting. If the community Clubhouse is uninhabitable due to damage or construction the membership be notified of a change in location through the normal communication channels defined in Article 12.02. All meetings at which business of the Corporation is to be conducted shall be governed by parliamentary procedure in accordance with the then current published version of "Roberts Rules of Order".